Junior Membership Acceptance Prerequisites:

Applications for Junior Membership can only be submitted at a regular club meeting and the applicant's parent or guardian must be present. Applicant must have a valid AMA membership (showing AMA card as proof) and have attended at least one (1) regular meeting in the twelve (12) months preceding the vote to admit. Club meetings take place on the first Thursday of each month. Annual dues for Junior Members are $10 per calendar year, or a part thereof. All new memberships are probationary for the first 6 months and can be revoked at any time for any reason within the probationary period. On January 1st following the Junior Member's 18th birthday, his/her Junior Membership ceases and he/she may become a Regular Member by paying the one-time initiation fee of $100 and annual dues of $70.
